'Progress' comes at a price on Route 66

Western Capri sign lost; Lewis Motel threatened by plans to build an auto parts store

They call it progress. Most roadies have other words for it, but they're not printable.

By the time you receive this newsletter, the Metro Diner in Tulsa will probably be closed and may, in fact, be gone altogether, thanks to the University of Tulsa's ill-advised plan to tear down several blocks' worth of buildings and replace them with a fancy new entrance to the campus.

The Metro is not historic (it was built in the 1980s), but its presence on 66 helps draw travelers off the interstate and into Tulsa.

When people ask you where to stop on Route 66, please redouble your efforts to make them aware of Tulsa's other treasures, such as the Desert Hills Motel, Lyon's Indian Store, El Rancho Grande, Ollie's, and others. We don't want them to miss out on Tulsa just because TU has selfishly chosen to destroy the city's best-known Route 66 icon.

Another loss for Tulsa came unexpectedly, when the owners of the Western Capri Motel decided to replace the motel's huge, historic neon sign with another backlit plastic monstrosity. By the time anybody discovered the loss, the sign had been taken to a junkyard and put through a shredder. Inexplicably, I never got around to photographing the sign before it was gone, and now it's too late.

Preserve your favorite Route 66 treasures on film while you can. If you wait until tomorrow, they may disappear today, and you'll have lost your chance.

Fortunately, all is not lost. O'Reilly Auto Parts has purchased the historic Lewis Motel in Vinita — across the street from Clanton's Cafe — and is planning to tear it down to make way for a new store. The sign has already been sold to someone from California who plans to put it on display on his own property. No word on whether that property is on or near 66. But the sign still exists, and it's not too late to try a Hail Mary pass on behalf of the building.

If O'Reilly's decisionmakers receive enough letters protesting this decision, they may change their plans — or at least think twice before attacking another historic icon.

Please take a moment to write a polite but firm letter to O'Reilly Auto Parts, urging the O'Reilly Auto Parts wants to tear down the historic Lewis Motel in Vinita and replace it with an auto parts store. Please write a letter to O'Reilly, protesting this decision.

company officials to reconsider their decision to tear down a piece of history. You can e-mail chairman of the board David O'Reilly at doreilly@oreillyauto.com, CEO and co-president Greg Henslee at ghenslee@oreillyauto.com, and COO and co-president Tom McFall at tmcfall@oreillyauto.com.

If you do not have access to e-mail, please call the company's customer satisfaction line at (800) 755-6759 and politely inform them that you are most definitely not satisfied with their decision to destroy a piece of Route 66 history.

Finally, send a letter to the editor of the Vinita Daily Journal (by e-mail at vdjnews@cablone.net or by mail at 138 S Wilson St., Vinita, OK, 74301-3730) expressing your disappointment with this situation. A flood of letters to the editor scared Walgreens away from the historic Boots Motel in Carthage, Mo., a few years ago. Perhaps a similar response will encourage O'Reilly to keep its bulldozers away from the Lewis Motel.

Make plans now to attend the fall Route 66 poker run!

The Oklahoma Route 66 Association is holding its fall poker run Oct. 21.

Registration for "Route 66 Hold 'Em" will begin at 7 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 21, at Route 66 Sunrise Grill, 7915 New Sapulpa Road (the newer alignment of 66 between Tulsa and Sapulpa).

Registration ends at 9 a.m.

The poker run ends at 3 p.m. at Summerside Vineyards in Vinita.

Poker hands cost $20 for a single or $30 for a double.

Stops will include the Will Rogers Memorial Museum in Claremore, Southern Belle Flea Market in Chelsea, and The Little Tin Barn between Chelsea and Vinita.

The cruise is open to all types of vehicles.

Take advantage of this opportunity to enjoy a fall Saturday exploring Oklahoma Route 66, making new friends, and perhaps even winning a prize or two!

For more information, call the Association office at (405) 258-0008.

Our summer poker run was held July 22 and went from Oklahoma City to Clinton.

Several roadies turned out — including some in classic cars — to cruise Route 66. A few even won prizes.

Cletus Simpson won first place, which was a rotisserie oven.

Jeanne Miller won second place, which was a Route 66 polo shirt.

John Hargrove won third place, which was a $25 gift certificate from Gar Wooly's in Davenport.

Our cruise committee is planning a fun and exciting poker run Oct. 21.

The new Miss Route 66, Gentry Johnson — a Claremore native who now attends school in Edmond — is planning to attend.

Gentry is trying to learn as much as she can about Route 66, so if you see her, please be sure to make her feel welcome and share your stories and thoughts about the Mother Road.

The cruise committee is planning more exciting events this year.

Be sure to watch your mail and check the Association Web site — www.oklahomaroute66.com — for details as they become available.

If you or your business would like to contribute prizes, donate items for our goody bags, or help plan and promote our next cruise, please contact the Association office at (405) 258-0008 or e-mail okrt66association@sbcglobal.net so Marilyn can put you in touch with the cruise committee.

New marker at Lucille's

Will Rogers Memorial Highway Historic Marker erected

A Will Rogers Memorial Highway Historic Marker has been placed on Route 66 at Lucille's near Hydro. A special thanks goes to all the people who supported this project. Route 66ers from Barstow, Calif., to Mt. Holly, N.C., and people from Muskegon, Mich., to Vernon, Texas, contributed to the marker fund.

Lucille Hamons was a unique person who symbolized the resilience and determination of the Mother Road businesspeople. Although she passed away several years ago, her memory will live on in the hearts of road warriors everywhere.

At press time, arrangements were being made for a recognition plaque to be presented to the new owner of Lucille's, Rick Koch of Weatherford, with the names of the people who donated money to this project. The plaque will have 66 names on it. When the inside of the station is restored, the plaque will hang on the wall in Lucille's kitchen.

Warr Acres to plant daffodils for centennial

The Daily Oklahoman reports that on Nov. 4, Citizens for a Better Warr Acres is planning to distribute 50,000 daffodil bulbs to residents, businesses and organizations in Warr Acres. The bulbs are to be planted in the fall so they will bloom next spring.

On Nov. 4, participants can pick up free bulbs and planting instructions at City Hall, 5930 NW 49. Daffodils also will be planted in highway medians and on city property. To participate in Daffodil Days, send donations to OK Centennial Fund Inc., P.O. Box 23111, Warr Acres, OK 73123.

Ron Warnick attended the Route 66 summit meeting and other events associated with the festival.

Their observations and experiences will be used to help make the festival in Clinton the biggest and best Route 66 festival ever.

During this year's festival, the first-ever Will Rogers Award was presented to John Lasseter of Pixar Animation Studios. Lasseter is the director and creative force behind the movie Cars, which is set on Route 66.

preservation was presented to Ned Luechtner, who rebuilt the Cool Springs Camp near Oatman, Ariz. All that remained of the camp when Ned bought it was a pair of stone pillars that had supported the building's canopy. Ned and his family reconstructed the building and opened it to travelers.

Several new awards were presented during the banquet: The Mother Road Business of the Year Award, which went to the Munger Moss Motel in Lebanon, Mo.; the Lifetime Achievement Award, which went to longtime New Mexico roadie Bob Audette; and the Mother Road Person of the Year Award, which went to Jane Dippel of St. Louis.

The Foundation presented its Founders Award to the National Park Service and its Route 66 Corridor Preservation Program, run by Michael Romero Taylor and Kaisa Barthuli.

The Will Rogers Award replaces the John Steinbeck Award, which was presented annually by the National Historic Route 66 Federation to recognize individuals for outstanding service to the road over an extended period of time.

The National Historic Route 66 Federation stepped down in 2005 after 10 years of organizing the awards banquet, handing the reins to the Route 66 Preservation Foundation.

Also during the banquet, the Cyrus Avery Award for historic
