Association kicks off membership drive

Earn a free one-year membership and qualify to win prizes by bringing in new members

The Oklahoma Route 66 Association is having a membership drive and would like to involve all current members.

At the annual meeting, board members decided to kick off the drive by challenging all current members to bring in as many new paid memberships as possible.

Membership renewals of current members and our new "kid's club memberships" are not included in this drive.

A grand prize will be awarded to the person or business that brings in the most new paid memberships.

Other prizes will be awarded as well.

A "pie in the face" will be given to Association President Mike Hickey, Canadian County Rep. Jerald Ashby or Creek County Rep. Frank Gierhart by one lucky winner.

Details will follow at a later time.

Current members will be rewarded for their efforts with a free one-year Association membership if they bring in five new paid memberships of any type.

This membership drive kicks off today and will end at the quarterly board meeting on Oct. 12.

Each member participating in the membership drive needs to keep a list of his or her new memberships to turn in at the Association office.

The new members' applications and payments need to be returned to the office by Friday, Oct. 10 to be tabulated before the winner is announced.

Oklahoma Route 66 Association membership applications may be downloaded from our Web site, www.oklahomaroute66.com, or be obtained from the Association office.

For more information, contact Marilyn Emde at the Association office at (405) 258-0008.

Beauty pageant winners to help with project

Business owners on Route 66 in Oklahoma may see two pretty new faces soon as beauty pageant winners Michelle McCoy of Oklahoma City and Courtney Clayton of Owasso begin helping the Association with its membership drive.

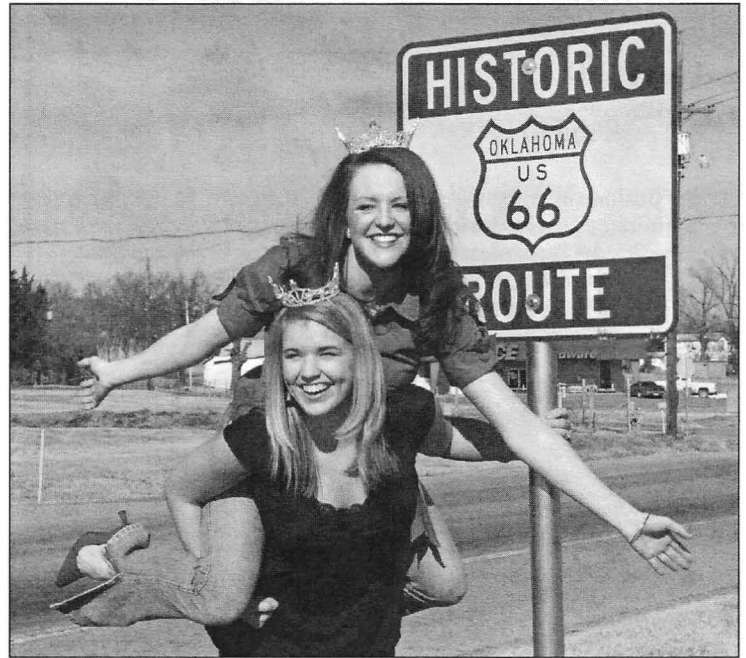

McCoy, the reigning Route 66, and Clayton, Miss Route 66 Outstanding Teen, will bring their considerable public service experience to Route 66 as they help the Association reach out to prospective members who may not be aware of the benefits of membership.

McCoy, a senior at the University of Central Oklahoma, was crowned Miss Beverly Hills in 2005 and Miss Route 66 in 2007.

McCoy serves as emcee for the National American Miss in Houston, Texas, hosting over 20 shows per weekend during pageant season. She also hosted a nine-week video discipleship series that was filmed in 2006 by Akerman Productions of Moore.

Since 2004, McCoy has owned

A letter from the president

Weather has damaged Route 66 pavement near Hydro

Hasn't this been the darndest weather? Most rain on record. My company is in the construction business, and for the last six months, it's been like riding a yo-yo.

Weather has played a part in the building and realigning of Route 66. The 4,000-foot bridge across the Canadian River replaced an unreliable ferry during high water times between Calumet and Bridgeport. A snowstorm kept the newly elected governor of New Mexico from sending his engineer to stop the bypassing of Santa Fe for a more direct route from Clines Corner to Albuquerque.

We even had to cancel an Association Christmas light cruise because of icy conditions.

This past summer and fall have taken a significant toll on the route for the eight miles east of Hydro. Signs warning "local traffic only" are set up along this stretch of 66. Repairing the erosion of the river banks will be extensive.

You and I can support these repairs with our local officials. Route 66 is the No. 1 tourist destination/attraction in Oklahoma. Travel the road and help preserve it.

Travel safe,
Mike

Legacy Ministries, a Christian dance studio.

McCoy is director of dance for Heartland Community Church and a character coach and speaker for Oklahoma City Public Schools. She also served as keynote speaker for the Conference on Student Character and is a member of Character First! Business Leaders. She serves on the executive board of the Annual Winter Ball Charity Event and the board of the Edmond Character Council.

Clayton is an honor roll student at Owasso Mid-High and has served as a student council class representative, and FCCLA state-wide secretary.

An avid golfer, she participated in the Junior LPGA and hopes to attend college on a golf scholarship and play in the LPGA. She is also a dancer and began teaching herself sign language at age 5.

Clayton's pageant platform issue is teen pregnancy awareness; as Miss Route 66 Outstanding Teen, she has worked to educate students, teachers and parents about teen pregnancy and hopes to reduce the number of unwanted pregnancies in Oklahoma.

Historic Fort Reno sets record for visitor attendance in 2007

After record visitor attendance of over 10,000 on 2006, The Historic Fort Reno Visitor Center/Museum set another record of over 13,000 in 2007, helped by the Centennial Chisholm Trail Cattle Drive weekend stopover and the Centennial/Tombstone Tales event in October.

The Historic Fort Reno Visitor Center/Museum opened in June 2005. It is in a completely restored 1936 officer's quarters, which replaced an original 1876 building that burned in 1931.

Historic Fort Reno, Inc. has overseen the recent exterior restoration of the officers' duplex and the commander's quarters and the current phase restoration of the 1891 officer's house. Restoration is funded through donations, events, a Save America's Treasures grant from the National Park Service, and Oklahoma Centennial Commission grants. To learn more, visit www.fortreno.org.
